

Invitation to attend free German classes

Learn German and familiarise yourself with German culture

Hello and welcome to Germany!

We are keen to support you in developing a sense of well-being and finding your feet in our country. This is why we are cordially inviting you to attend our free German course.

Not only will you learn basic German words and sentences that will help you to make yourself more clearly understood, you will also learn a great deal about German culture and mentality.

Secure your place now: We look forward to welcoming you!

- The course begins on 21st December 2015 and comprises 320 teaching modules.
- Participation is being facilitated by the Federal Labour Office and is completely free of charge for you!
- We will bear your costs arising from travelling to the venue by public transport.
- Our colleagues will accompany you when you travel to the venue for the first time.
- No prior knowledge is required.
- A pre-condition for participation in this course, which is being offered free of charge, is that you have lodged an application for asylum, have been allocated an ID number as part of asylum procedures or already have a residence permit and come from one of the approved countries of origin (Eritrea, Iraq, Iran and Syria).

Do you have any questions, or would you like to register for the course?

Lara Donatini and Miriam Weber from IBB Frankfurt will be happy to assist you! We also speak English ☺

Tel. 069 27220640 E-mail: lara.donatini@ibb.com
miriam.weber@ibb.com

About us

IBB has been in existence for 30 years and is one of the largest German further education providers. At approximately 100 training locations across the country, close to 750 employees cater to our course participants. What is of prime importance is not just successful study and learning; we are also ready to lend a sympathetic ear to our customers and ensure that they feel they are optimally supported.

A special thrust area of our work is constituted by German courses, which we offer for all levels of ability – from beginners' courses to professional courses. A large number of immigrants have already benefited from these and now have solid chances of establishing a future here in Germany.

Offer for refugees

Free German course.